Bob Chilcott is one of the UK's major choral conductors and composers. Following the King's College – King's Singers route, from 1997 he has dedicated himself to composition and conducting, not least for young choirs, and has over a hundred works in print.

His workshops are in great demand and so we are very fortunate to have secured his services for what will be a challenging, exhilarating and rewarding day for singers in our area. He has an approachable style, and people have found his warming up, breathing and presentational techniques really helpful. At the end of a recent workshop the following comments were heard, "everyone voted for a repeat", and "I will certainly try to get there if he comes our way again"

Come along and enjoy yourselves.

Singing Day

This is a great chance to spend a day singing and performing with a world famous composer.

"A contemporary hero of British Choral music"
- The Observer

Not only will you be singing marvellous music, but Bob Chilcott will include some of his 'choral secrets' on how to be a better singer.

The cost of £15 for the singing day will cover everything, including tea and coffee and hire of music.

So, whatever your vocal ability, do make a date in your diary and come along.

This Singing Day is organised by Congleton Choral Society as part of its development programme to involve people locally and regionally in singing and making music together.

Congleton Choral Society was founded in 1971 and is now under the direction of Nick Concannon Hodges.

We are a friendly choir of 70 voices performing 3 main concerts a year. The choir sings in local churches, has sung services in English Cathedrals and performed in venues in France and Belgium on overseas visits.

This year's concerts are on Saturday 1st May and Saturday 16th October 2010 in Congleton Town Hall at 7.30pm.

Rehearsals are held from 7.45 - 9.45 pm on Monday evenings at

Trinity Methodist Church,
Wagg Street, Congleton CW12 4BA
For more information about the choir please see our website.
